1. PURPOSE OF ORGANIZATION

The First Nations University of Canada Inc. (theniversity") is a First Nations controlled, post-secondary educational institution providing edicaral opportunities to both First Nations and non-First Nations students. It is incorporated under hope profit Corporations Act of Saskatchewan.

The University's mission is to enhance the quality of and to preserve, protect, and interpret the history, language, culture, and attisheritage of First Nations.

The University is a registered charity under Mnerme Tax Act (Canada) and accordingly is exempt from income taxes.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements for the year ended Marc, 2015 have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profigamizations outlined in Part III of the CPA Handbook.

The following summary of significant accounting policies contains a description of the accounting methods and practices that are used by the University

a) Property, plant & equipment

Purchased property, plant and equipment is retended at cost. Contributed property, plant and equipment is recorded at fair value at the definition. Repairs and maintenance costs are charged to expense. Betterments, where the estimated life of an asset, are capitalized. When property, plant and equipment no longer contribute to the University's ability to provide services, its carrying amount written down to its residual value.

Property, plant and equipment are amortized on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives as follows:

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

b) Revenue recognition

Student fees are recognized as revenue in the year the related classes are held.

The University follows the deferral method accounting for contributions, which include donations and government grants.

Operating grants are recorded as revenue arptriod to which they relate. Grants approved but not received at the end of an accounting period are accrued.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably assistant collection is reasonably assured.

Externally restricted contributions are recognized revenue in the year in which the related expenses are recognized. The amounts restricted for research consists of grant and contract revenue and expenses specifically identified to related activities as restricted by the granting agencies, research institutes and other public and private organizations. Contributions restricted for the purchase of purity, plant and equipment are deferred and amortized into revenue at a rate correspondition the amortization rate for the related property, plant and equipment.

Trust and endowment contributions are receptains direct increases in trust and endowment net assets. Scholarships and grant expenses are recognized as direct decreases in trust and endowment net assets.

Investment income related to trust and endowments is recognized as a direct increase in trust and endowment net assets.

c) Financial Instruments

The University initially measures its finance assets and liabilities at fair value. The University subsequently measures all its flicial assets and liabilities at cost or amortized cost, except for investments in equity instrumts that are quoted in an active market, which are measured at fair value. Changes in fittie value of these financial instruments are recognized in net income in the period incurred.

Transaction costs related to financial instrumethat will be subsequently measured at fair value are recognized in net income in the riod incurred. Transaction costs related to financial instruments subsequently measured materized cost are included in the original cost of the asset or liability and recognized in the over the life of the instrument using the straight-line method.

Investment held in trust	758,625		788,108
	$ 1,997,723	$	1,878,169

Pooled fund investments are held in a balanced pooled fund on behalf of the University by the University of Regina. The pooled fund has no dixestribution rate and fund returns are based on the success of the fund manager.

On April 1, 2014 the University entered into Advisory Services Agreement with the University of Regina. Under this Advisory Services Agreetmenthich expires March 31, 2017, the University of Regina provides certain administrative and nitrial management services to the University. In order to indemnify the University of Reginar nany liabilities that may rise out of the performance of these administrative and financial management services the University has placed a $750,000 guaranteed investment certificate in trust with the versity of Regina. This guaranteed investment certificate pays interest at a rate of 1.15% in the first year, 1.35% in the second year and 1.70% in the third year.

6. RISK MANAGEMENT

Exposure to credit risk, liquidity risk and marketkri(consisting of interest rate risk, equity price risk and foreign exchange risk) arise in thormal course of the University's business.

Credit Risk

The University's principal financial assets arash, accounts receivable and investments. The carrying amounts of financial assets in the statement of financial position represent the University's maximum credit exposure at the statement of financial position dates.

The University's credit risk is primarily attriutable to accounts receivable and investments. The amounts disclosed in the statement of financialition are net of allowance for doubtful accounts, estimated based on previous experience analsaessment of the current economic environment. With the exception of amounts receivable from the versity of Regina, the University does not have significant exposure to any individual customer.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the University is nable to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The University manages this risk by managing its cash resources and having a line of credit available to it (note 7).
